

Summary:

Cyan Dee, who has been exhibiting under the name Machiko Edmondson, is currently pursuing a practice-based PhD at the University of Brighton after earning her MFA in Fine Art from Goldsmiths College, University of London, in 1995. She has shown her work internationally at various galleries, museums, and art fairs, including Victoria Miro Gallery and Whitechapel Gallery in London, Centro Brasileiro Britânico in São Paulo, Stills in Edinburgh, Museum Voorlinden in the Netherlands, and Harris Museum in Preston. Her work has also been featured at prestigious events such as Frieze and The Armory Show. Most recently, she participated in the group exhibition 'HEADS ROLL' at Graves Gallery/Museums Sheffield, curated by Paul Morrison in 2018.

Her paintings have been included in numerous curated shows, alongside the works of Alex Katz, Glenn Brown, Peter Doig, John Currin, Elizabeth Peyton, Yinka Shonibare, Jeff Koons, Tony Oursler, Takashi Murakami, Yoshitomo Nara, Cindy Sherman, Mariko Mori, Marlene Dumas, Michael Craig-Martin, Paul Morrison, Mark Wallinger, Andy Warhol, and many more.

Having been featured regularly at auction houses such as Sotheby's and Christie's, a couple of her paintings have achieved more than six figures (USD) in the past.

She is a British artist.

After a four-year stint in New York, she now lives and works in London, where she has been since the early 1980s.
